ROTARIANS @ Spirit of Magic Valley

The Weather App on my iPhone showed virtual raindrops at 6:00 a.m. when I looked. I decided to dress in warm clothing with a hooded rain jacket to meet the predicted weather conditions of the day; in true Southeast Alaska fashion. Imagine my surprise, and that of my fellow Rotarians: Mark Koffer, George Hasell, Kevin Bradshaw, Kristin Vincent, and her husband Josh, who helped set up on the Canyon Rim. And where we spent a few hours distributing water and Gatorade to the half-marathon runners of the Spirit of Magic Valley fundraiser, without a drop-of-rain! Some of the proceeds benefitted, Twin Falls Parks and Recreation.

We Rotarians, were greatly appreciated for our water table, smiles, and words of encouragement to all participants. From the young boy who seemed to sprint by, to the walkers and couples who were walking or running leisurely along; enjoying friendship and the company of one another.

It was great fun to be there. To cheer folks on. To get better acquainted with each other. And to have an opportunity to enjoy the beauty of the canyon at that time of the day. One "guest" walker from Connecticut was staying at the near-by hotel and decided to join in on the event. ~ Sharon Dowdle

Popcorn at @ City Park Starts Thursday

Popcorn was a hit as the Twin Falls Municipal Band kicked off its 117th season. This week's Rotary Poppers were Kristin Vincent (Chair), President Chris Huston, Sharon Dowdle and Jill Skeem (popcorn hustler) and Kevin Bradshaw on water and camera. Next week we will be selling cookies from the Twin Falls Senior Center and all cookie sales will go to them. Happy to report that we took in $118 that evening.

Welcome Graham, Shelton

President Chris Huston added two new members to the roster. Dave Graham and Joe Shelton. Dave is the Pastor of the First Baptist Twin Falls Church on Shoshone street. Joe is the CEO of White Cloud Communications, with almost 50 years of business in the Magic Valley. Welcome and we looking forward to your help in serving the community.

Rotarian Jeff Leedy with a Pet

Our speaker last week, Jeff Leedy, was an artist and Rotarian from Boise, He loves painting peoples' pets and making something funny about them.

You'll see his work again over the next few weeks as he has provided us with some fun humor drawings to include in our weekly newsletter.

The business cards that he handed out, may have an old phone number; he provided the correct number in case you would like to contact him. 208-340-0995 - Want to view or share more of his art with others?
